Manti, Sanpete Co., March 3.—The funeral services over the remains of the much beloved Bishop, William T. Reld, were held in the tabernacie here yesterday afternoon. There was a great gathering of people who came out to honor the memory of the departed. President Lewis Anderson of the stake presided at the meeting. The choir sang with fine effect that beautiful hymn, "O My Father." Elder E. T. Parry offered the invocation. The speakers dwelt upon the splendid character of the deceased, the extraordinary measure of unselinsh labor done by him during all his life, and each one voiced the sorrow felt by all that Bishop Reld was no longer left to minister to the people whom he so deeply loved. Those who offered sympathy to the bereaved and held up the high qualities of the departed were: Patriarch John B. was last night convicted of horsesteal-ing, and on Monday Judge Craig will sentence him to a long term in the penitentiary. The jury was given the case at 6 o'clock, and at 9:30 the third ballot stood unanimous for conviction. The first ballot was 10 for conviction. This was O'Day's third trial, the previous trials resulting in disagree-ments. His attorneys filed a motion for a new trial, but the motion will probably not be granted.

O'Day is the last of a large band of notorious characters that infested central Wyoming for years. When captured he was getting out of the coun try with a bunch of stolen horses. It was feared at one time that the sheriff would be overpowered and O'Day de-livered before he could land the prisoner in jail, and later an attack on the jail was threatened. O'Day was at one time a member of the notorious band of Curry outlaws.

"Aunt Cassie came to visit us and she saw I was nervous, had the fidgets all the time, and she asked me many questions, and finally said, 'Why, you dear, sweet girl, it's not your temper that's bad, it's your constitution that's out of kilter. You sit constitution that's out of kilter. You sit right down now and write a letter to Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., tell him all your symptoms '—and so I did. It wasn't long before I had a long reply, carefully going over my case and telling me just what to do. I date my present happiness and little Cupid's return to the very day I sat down to write that letter to Dr. Pierce, for his advice was so good and his 'Favorite Prescription' worked such a complete change in me that now my former cheerfulness and good health—not to say anything of good looks—are restored to me. I have summoned Tom back to my side and we are to be married in June."

The proprietors and makers of Doctor

The proprietors and makers of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 for any case of Leucorrhica, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. It is natural that a woman who has been cured of womanly disease by "Favorite Prescription" should believe that it will cure others. It is natural too that she should recommend to other women the medicine which has cured her. It is such commendation which has made the name of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a household word for the past thirty-

West Weber, Weber Co., March 2.—Yesterday a social reunion was given by the ladies of the Relief societies in honor of the old folks of this ward, in the meetinghouse. At 2 p. m. the exercises commenced by singing and prayer. Counselor George F. Hunter made a few opening remarks, in which he thanked the sisters of the two Relief societies for their noble work in looking after the sick and giving heip to those in need. The program consisted of songs, recitations and short specches by Bishop R. McFarland and others. The ward choir, under the direction of E. W. Clayton, rendered some fine pieces.

At half past four three large tables, the full length of the hall, were spread with the bounties of life. After all had eaten until satisfied the hall was cleared and the rest of the time until near midnight was spent in dancing, interspersed with songs and recitations.

All over 70 were given some useful present. Those who were not able to attend
